

“Back to the Future”

Swedish IT and Cleantech Growth Companies Visit Silicon Valley

Save the Date!

Who's Invited: Venture capital and corporate investors with active funds under management. Swedish IT, telecom and cleantech growth companies raising B or later rounds.

Swedish VCs: have your portfolio companies raising B or later rounds contact Niklas Johnsson niklas.johnsson@isa.se (IT & Telecom) or Göran Stegrin goran.stegrin@isa.se (Cleantech) for information on how to participate.

When: Tuesday, 10 November 2009, 08:30 to 12:30 (lunch/mingling after)

Theme: “Back to the Future” – Enabling US investors to see what tomorrow might look like, by looking back on what a country of nine million already has achieved:

- See how Sweden generates the lowest CO₂ emissions in Europe, while growing GDP
- See how Sweden drives standards for the world's mobile networks
- Present your company's strategic and competitive advantages to leading American VC and corporate investors
- Learn about Silicon Valley attitudes towards embracing risk
- Learn what American VCs want to hear from you, and why
- Meet potential corporate and collaboration partners
